

Delhi HC asks hotels to become Covid care centres

RISHI RANJAN KALA
New Delhi, June 15

THE DELHI HIGH COURT on Monday directed hotels Surya and Crowne Plaza to start the process of converting their premises into Covid-19 care centres, based on the report of a two-member panel, which said the exercise was feasible.

Last week, the court formed a two-member committee, consisting of AIIMS director Randeep Guleria and Niti Aayog member VK Paul, to look into the issues being faced by hotels to convert into hospitals for treating Covid-19 positive cases. The panel was to look into the feasibility of state government's May 29 order. It submitted the report on Sunday.

Continuing the hearing on petitions of Crowne Plaza and Surya, Justice Navin Chawla said the panel has submitted its report and suggested that it is "feasible" to convert the premises into a Covid care centre. Accordingly, the court directed the hotels to start the process. The conversion would be based on the ministry of home affairs' (MHA) April guidelines. Sources said the patients to be admitted would be those with mild Covid-19 symptoms.

Last week, the court formed a two-member committee, consisting of AIIMS director Randeep Guleria and Niti Aayog member VK Paul, to look into issues hotels faced

While Crowne Plaza was represented by senior advocate Maninder Singh, Hotel Surya was represented by senior advocate Saurabh Kirpal, Atul Sharma and Sugam Seth, among others.

The counsel for the hotels flagged the issue of compensation. They have also been raising issues of practicalities and cost implications of refurbishing hotels and converting them to hospitals and vice versa.

The court directed them to discuss the issue of compensation with the Delhi government and directed the hotels to send a representation for the same.

On May 29, the Delhi government asked hotels Sheraton at Saket, Crown Plaza at Okhla Phase-I, Surya at New Friends Plaza, Siddharth at Rajendra Place and Jivitesh at Pusa Road to be converted into Covid-19 hospitals. They are to be attached to hospitals — Batra Hospital, Indraprastha Apollo, BL Kapur Memorial, Sir Ganga Ram and Max Smart Super Speciality.

Although July 29 has been set as the next date of hearing, hotels can approach the court in case of a dispute.

MSMEs face existential crisis: Crisil

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, June 15

THE MICRO, SMALL and medium enterprises (MSMEs) are faced with an existential crisis due to contraction in the economy in financial year (FY) 2021 amid the Covid-19 outbreak, revealed a report by ratings agency Crisil. "The 5% contraction in the Indian economy expected by CRISIL this fiscal — wrought by the Covid-19 pandemic — will significantly hurt MSMEs across sectors," the report said.

Crisil said India Inc was headed towards a 15% decline in revenue and 25% fall in earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (ebitda). However, for small businesses, the fall in revenue would be at 17-21%, while ebitda margin would shrink 200-300 bps to 4-5%, as weak demand gnawed away gains from lower commodity prices, said Crisil.

Crisil saw consumer discretionary, construction, and export-linked businesses bearing the brunt. Small real-estate contractors in engineering, procurement, construction (EPC) projects, and ceramics and textiles makers had been significantly impacted, so their credit profiles were the most vulnerable, the ratings agency said.

"A sharp decline at the operating level will also impact creditworthiness, aggravating the liquidity stretch these units have been grappling with, particularly on the working capital front. In the process, average interest service coverage ratio could slide to 1-1.5 times from 2.4 times seen between fiscals 2017 and 2020," the report said.

This calculation was done after factoring in the benefit of moratorium on interest payments announced by the RBI.

The ratio would have gone below one without the moratorium, the report said. RBI had provided moratorium to customers for three months from March 1, which was further extended till August.

"The challenges would be the hardest for micro enterprises, which account for 32% of the overall MSME debt, and are facing material stress," the report said.

Amish Mehta, chief operating officer at Crisil, said, "A three-pronged strategy is essential now: one, improve the sentiment around job security for formal and informal workers to boost consumption. Two, hasten implementation of the ₹3-lakh crore Aatmanirbhar scheme to ensure flow of liquidity to MSMEs continues. Three, and most importantly, lenders have to go beyond traditional credit processes because they have to play a seminal role in recovery."

Sahara Group says no layoffs, gives salary hikes to staff amid Covid pressure

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 15

EVEN AS COVID-related layoffs and salary cuts ensued across sectors, the Sahara Group on Monday said it had given pay hikes and promotions to its employees.

Further, it said there would be no layoffs of workers from any of its business vertical due to the coronavirus situation.

The Sahara Group is also planning to recruit from people who have recently migrated back to Uttar Pradesh from different states in the wake of pandemic and they would be appointed at local level, based on their qualifications in various business activities of the group, a company statement said.

It, however, said economic activities had been adversely affected because of lockdown and the group was facing an unprecedented situation.

Despite hardships, the Sahara Group said, "it has taken a strong decision of not laying off any of its worker from any of its business vertical due to the pandemic", and added that all the workers would continue to work with full security. Based on productivity, the company said it had given one cadre promotion to its 4,05,874 field workers. Along with this, as many as 4,808 office workers were given promotion with salary increment, the statement said.

The Sahara Group has 14 lakh workers associated with its various business verticals.

Also, the group has appealed to all the small and big organisations to give paramount importance to the livelihood of every employee working under them.
