Text of Application

I request your kind self to please furnish the following information which has arisen in consequence to the pandemic COVID -19 hindered in all areas of activities in the country and more so with the service rules of employees in many sectors for want of clear guidelines and circulars in order to regularize any period of absence on the part of such employees who are genuinely got held up either in the force of their sanctioned leave or under similar circumstances away from place of work. Some of the government organisations are not inclined to extend special quarantine leave without loss of pay to such employees in the absence of any clear guidelines or circulars from the government. I shall be thankful for information with respect to 1)any circulars/guidelines issued for extending special quarantine leave, without loss of pay, to employees in the wake of national wide lock down, while such employees are away from work place on prior sanctioned leave or on such reasons and unable to return back to the place of posting. 2)Such special considerations for special quarantine leave without loss of pay to be sanctioned to such employees who would have been held up due to different reasons including lack of transport, also guidelines imposed by different states for further quarantine on reaching the desired places etc. 3) I may please be furnished the details of such circulars extending the above special quarantine leave without loss of pay applicable to the employees of : a) Government employees b) Employees of public sector enterprises c) Banks and other financial institutions. d) Regional Rural Banks
